Students have been celebrating Asian and Pacific Islander American Heritage Month with the Department of Cultural Affairs Music LA Program at the Korean Education Center by exploring the beautiful sounds and movements of traditional Korean song and dance. Beginner and Intermediate students in Gaygeum, Samulnori, and Standing Samulnori will showcase what they have learned for the past 8 weeks under the direction of Paul Lee and the Korean Classical Music Institute of America. Don't miss this exciting public culminating event for family and friends!
