

WOMEN IN TRANSPORTATION

Take advantage of this special Transportation training program for women interested in the exciting sustainable transportation industry. The goal of this training program is to expose women to sustainable transportation careers. Train in a learning environment that supports women in this non-traditional employment role.

TRAINING INCLUDES:

- Workplace safety certification
- Hybrid Vehicle Maintenance
- Clean Diesel, Biodiesel and Compressed Natural Gas (CNG)
- Sustainable Collision Repair Estimating

REQUIREMENTS

- At least 18 years of age

Meet one of the following categories:

- Unemployed or underemployed individuals
- High school non-completers (no High School Diploma or GED)
- Previous offender (e.g. probation, parole)

PREPARE FOR EMPLOYMENT IN THE AUTOMOTIVE, HEAVY EQUIPMENT, AND COLLISION INDUSTRIES!

SIGN UP TODAY!

Orientation: Tuesday, July 12 & 14 at 9:00 am

Interested women must complete the Interest
Questionnaire. To start go to:

<http://college.lattc.edu/JobTraining/>

Summer Session 2011

July 18 to August 24
Monday - Thursday
7:00 am to 12:00 pm

For Further Information Contact:

LATTC Bridges to Success Center, ST 316
400 W Washington Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90015
Tel: (213)763-5560 • <http://college.lattc.edu/bridges>