

David Ryu, Master of Ceremonies, makes a closing statement at the Meet & Greet with Supervisor Knabe on August 31, 2010.

Before we close, we wanted to take the time to again give a big THANK YOU to Supervisor Don Knabe.

We want to recognize that he is the longest friend and strongest supporter of the Asian Pacific Islander Community.

He was always the first one there and always there in person.

We also want to recognize that you were the FIRST to step up and provide a multi-year donation to A3PCON, so that we are better organized to bring to our members, events such as today.

Your staff is always accessible. Mike Jin is quite frankly- everywhere, Nick Ippolito is one of the most active deputies and the "go-to" person for a variety of policy issues.

You have always been there for us and while today's intent was NOT to "ask, ask, ask," what can we do, we are nonprofit and we couldn't help ourselves...

But seriously, we would like to continue to create a more mutually beneficial relationship and GIVE BACK, so as our President stated, please let us know what we can do for you.
