

AABA 3rd GM:

Public Speaking with Phillip Chen

Board Deputy for Los Angeles County Supervisor

Date: April 12th

Time: 7pm

Location: HOH415

AABA is proud to bring you USC Alumni guest speaker, Phillip Chen, a qualified Asian American politician in the Los Angeles County to give tips on public speaking.

About the Speaker:

- Responsible for helping to formulate policy in all aspects of County health and mental health services.
- "Reserve Deputy" of the Year for the Walnut/Diamond Bar Station
- Prior to joining Los Angeles County Supervisor Michael Antonovich's staff, he was appointed by Governor Pete Wilson to serve for the Governor's Office of Criminal Justice Planning
- Phillip holds a Master's in Public Administration from the University of Southern California (USC) and is a Doctoral candidate in Education Administration at USC.

Mr. Chen will be giving a presentation on tips for public speaking. Come listen to his experiences and ask him questions about his area of expertise. This will be a great opportunity to network with a local politician and to learn more about politics!
